

Transportation System Management & Transportation Demand Management

Option 5

The Transportation System Management/Transportation Demand Management option would include identifying local roadways as alternatives to interstate travel and preserving the high capacity transit corridor identified during the NSTI study.

Alternative local roadways were identified during Step 3 of the PDP process and are listed in the previously submitted Planning Study Report.

Each conceptual alternative was evaluated on if the transit corridor would be preserved and the results of that analysis are contained in the evaluation matrix.

